After receiving protest from Saeed and Hamad for their final dismissal yesterday from points due to connection error.

The Steward have considered the matter and determine the following;

Saeed will get before last points for the race as he finished Qualifying Round 1.

Hamad gets last position points as the bug happened after joining the lobby during the waiting time for others to join.

The fact matter for both protest were verified.

If the situation exists in the future for any other competitor minding a protest was admitted the same rule will apply.

If the decision will affect any other competitors reaching the final week, another bulletin will be issued
